The Heartwood Wiki

Welcome to the Heartwood wiki. This is the site where we edit and make available documents for students and staff, so what you see is the latest version of each.

Navigating the wiki

NB Some pages have a table of contents on the right and others don't. That is automatic once there are 3 or more headings on the page.

Pages have an "up" arrow to take you to the top again.

If you get "access denied" messages please click the logo to return to this page or:

1. use the breadcrumbs (green, top of page) to retrace your steps
2. go to the SiteMap (see the gear icon at the top right corner of the page).

If you think you should have access, please check you have logged in correctly first, then let us know at support@heartwoodteam.net so we can adjust your permissions.

Can't find what you need? Please let us know if links are broken, or if you can't find a page you think should be here. If it exists, it should be in the sitemap (accessed by clicking the cogwheel on the top right):

and if it is not there (or you think it should be in a different set of pages) please let us know, preferably on the # wiki channel on Slack if you are a tutor or on the tech support forum if you are a Professional Course student
